Yes,

You can send me an email saying please update your email from this to this and list all your sites in the email. I can do an internal modification to update that.

Rita

Good Morning Rita,

Jay Petroleum is going through some changes with our Email provider and we are discontinuing the pakasak.com email address for all of our users. Short of filling out new notification forms for every site, is there any way we can update my email address from cbraun@pakasak.com to cbraun@jaypetroleum.com for all of our sites?

Have a great day!

Thank You,

Christopher Braun
