Dear Doug Johnson:

EPA grants the requested extension for responding to the Notice of Potential Violation to 60 days from receipt, or August 23, 2024.

Also, EPA is in receipt of Commander Martinez's email regarding from whom we are seeking action. It was EPA's intent to send the letter to highest ranking official with responsibility for compliance with environmental laws and regulations across the entire base, so as to receive a complete response. Given the delegation of a response to you and Ryan McDuffee, we assume that U.S. Naval Support Activity – Crane has resolved this issue.

Sincerely,

Todd Brown

Subject: RE: Notice of Potential Violation: U.S. Naval Support Activity – Crane (IN5170023498) - Request for Extension

Good afternoon,

We respectfully request an extension of time to respond to the June 24, 2024 Notice of Potential Violation and Opportunity to Confer. The full responses to the identified areas of concern will require coordination among multiple Department of the Navy commands and multiple Department of Defense military services. In order to gather information and coordinate between the various stakeholders, we request a time extension of 60 days from June 24 (date of receipt of this notice) with an expected date of response no later than 23 August 2024.

Ryan McDuffee (NSWC Crane Environmental Technical Lead) will be coordinating our response to the Notice of Potential Violation and Opportunity to Confer letter. If you have any questions or concerns about our extension request, please reach out to Ryan.

Thanks for the assistance,

Doug Johnson

Commander Luis G. Martinez:

Attached is a Notice of Potential Violation and Opportunity to Confer letter that U.S. EPA is issuing to U.S. Naval Support Crane Division. The letter is in response to the February 2023, RCRA compliance evaluation inspection. A copy of the inspection report is also attached. Please note a response is requested in 30 days.

Please contact me if you have any questions.
